

Time for quality jobs – Learning Point

10-11 July, Rome Italy

Seminar

CISL Italy, the host of one of the three learning points of the European project Time for quality jobs, invites you to participate in a 2-day offline seminar, which will be held on 10-11th July 2023 in Rome, Italy.

During the event, participants will summarize best practices focusing on the southern European region.

The seminar will be attended by local and international participants and will include interactive sessions with policymakers, representatives of EU institutions, as well as young stakeholders from civil society.

Registration

Participants must register via this link before 1 June 2023. Only selected participants that receive confirmation from the secretariat will be entitled to reimbursement. The selection will consider gender and geographical balance.

EU Project

The COVID-19 crisis has revealed, once again, the vulnerability of young people around the world, who were among the first to lose their jobs after the pandemic broke out. This is reminiscent of the situation after the 2008 financial crisis.

How did we end up in the same situation again? How can we prevent it from happening again? And how do we effectively solve the problem of youth unemployment, not for good-looking statistics, but to effectively ensure the well-being of the next generation of Europeans? In doing so, the focus should be on the need for quality jobs and avoiding the uncertainty that has dire consequences for the younger generation

Target Group

Young Trade Unionist and Trade Union officers working on youth rights and youth employment from the following countries are invited to attend the second learning point: Spain, Italy, France, Portugal, Greece.

Participants are expected to arrive on 10th July in the morning and depart after the seminar on 11th July 2023. (after 14:00)

IMPORTANT: Reimbursement rules

Please note that the rules on reimbursement have changed. Participants will no longer be reimbursed the real costs of travel + accommodation, instead they receive a fix lumpsum according to the distance travelled (see page 10) + accommodation for Italy (114€) + Daily Allowance (max. 98€).

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY THE INSTRUCTIONS AND GUIDELINES ATTACHED.

Info & contacts

For any information please do not hesitate to contact Niklas Franke, ETUC Project Officer at nfranke@etuc.org.